Welcome to Bethel Lutheran Church

We are glad you are here and we pray God will be real to you as you worship. Bethel is a Reconciling in Christ congregation. Knowing God loves all creation and holds us all, we welcome you who walk through our doors and you who are outside those doors. We welcome everyone and honor the rich diversity and giftedness that age, sexual orientation, race, belief, emotional and physical health, gender identity, marital status and station in life bring to the Bethel family and our relationships.

WE GATHER TOGETHER

Prelude

March from Troidhaugen

Edvard Grieg

Welcome

Confession and Forgiveness

Let us confess our failings before God and one another

We hear the call to trust in God always,
But some days our stresses and doubts are even more real to us than God, and trust is elusive.
We remember how Abram dared to believe in God's promises,
But belief like that is hard to come by.
We are often inclined to think,
"God helps those who help themselves,"
instead of daring to rely on the word of our Creator.
When the world seems filled with dangers,
we can be quick to protect ourselves,
And we forget the wisdom of scripture, which reminds us that we find traces of evil both outside and inside of ourselves.
With God's help, we confront our fears and struggles, and we call upon a power greater than our own to resist their pull.
Hear us, Holy One, as we confess our frailty and failings.

Restrooms are located in the basement on the east side of the building. A gender neutral restroom located behind the worship space next to the church office. Please ask the Usher or Greeter for assistance. There is also a rocking chair in the rear of the Sanctuary. Please use it as you wish.

Silent prayers of confession

Though fear should beset us;
though danger cause us to close up our doors;
though troubles assail and lead us away from the ways of grace;
only one thing is necessary:
just turn back to God's promise of grace.
Remember that God is reaching out with loving arms,
and let yourself be held.
Only ask for forgiveness, and it is yours:
know that in this moment you have asked and in Christ Jesus, you are forgiven. In the name of the Creator God, Christ Jesus, His only Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Thanks be to God! Amen.

WE HEAR GOD'S WORD

First Reading

Genesis 15:1-6

After these things the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." But Abram said, "O Lord God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir." But the word of the Lord came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir." He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be." And he believed the Lord; and the Lord reckoned it to him as righteousness.

P: Holy Word, Holy Wisdom.

C: Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old—and Sarah herself was barren—because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, "as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore."

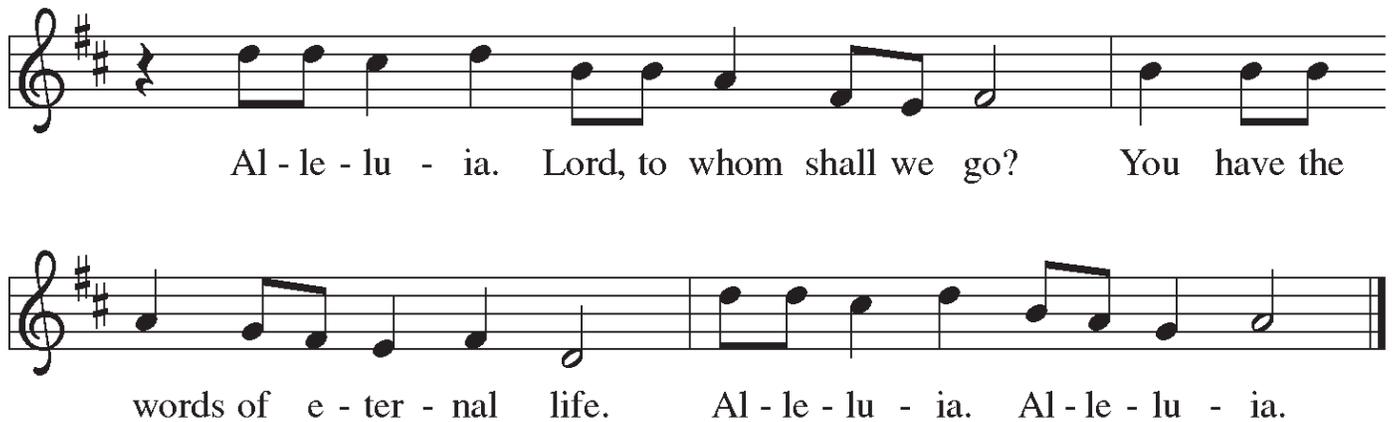

All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

P: Holy Word, Holy Wisdom.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia.

The Holy Gospel according to Luke the twelfth chapter.

The people respond: Glory to you, O God.

[Jesus said:] "Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

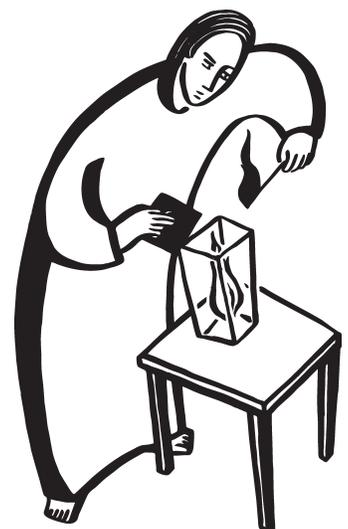

"Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

"But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour."

The people respond: Praise to you, O Christ.

in all things works with you;
thankful hearts raise to God!

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.*
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Response: Hear us, O God.

Our welcome extends to the Communion Table. We recognize that this is Christ's Table and Christ's invitation. Please come forward as you are invited. If you prefer not to receive Communion at this time, you are welcome to come forward for a blessing – just fold your arms across your chest so that we know you prefer a blessing. Wine is served from the first chalice; grape juice is served from the second. We also offer gluten-free bread and individual cups of wine.

Offertory Prayer

Blessed are you, O God, for the greening earth given for all, for the talents we are given to share and for this bread and wine. Transform us to be the body of Christ, that, feasting on this food and drink, our lives may reflect your generosity, through Christ our Redeemer. Amen.

Words of Institution

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father and Mother
Who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done
on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

Invitation to Communion

God invites you to this table of bounty. Come, the banquet is ready.

Hymn

Taste and See

Taste and see, taste and see the good-ness of the Lord. Oh, taste and see, taste and see the good-ness of the Lord, of the Lord.

Parsonage Update

Cabinets, Appliances, Flooring, Oh Boy!

The parsonage is really coming together. The new water line is installed, new windows are in place upstairs, cabinets have been installed in the bathrooms and kitchen, and new kitchen appliances are being installed. The floors are being refinished and will be gorgeous. Additionally, courtesy of Danny from Superior Quality Construction the kitchen got some insulation!!!

Property Management Selected

The church council has selected, Dwell, by majority vote, to be the property management company for the parsonage. In addition to offering competitive management rates, the representative from Dwell is a long time supporter of the YDIC and so has an intimate knowledge of Bethel's mission.

Building Update

Progress has been slow (and that can be disheartening), but the building materials that have not been removed (such as the wood beams in the floor) have finally gotten to the point where they are dried out. The anti-microbial spray has been applied. The contractor is starting next week to hang sheet rock and begin the reconstruction process.

News from the Churchwide Assembly – August 5-10, 2019

ELCA Churchwide Assembly declares ELCA sanctuary church

The 2019 ELCA Churchwide Assembly approved a memorial declaring the ELCA a sanctuary church. The ELCA is the first North American denomination to declare itself a sanctuary church body. As a sanctuary church the ELCA is committed to serving and supporting migrant children and families in communities across the country.

More than 700 Assembly representatives from around the country joined the Presiding Bishop, the Rev. Elizabeth Eaton, in a march and prayer vigil to the Milwaukee Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) office. The march addressed concerns about the human rights of migrant children and families entering the U.S. along the southern border. Through the ELCA's initiative, Accompanying Migrant Minors with Protection, Advocacy, Representation and Opportunities (AMMPARO), the ELCA declared it is committed to work toward just and humane policies affecting migrants in and outside the U.S.

- Monday, August 12th at 10:00 am at the Hillsboro Civic Center 150 E Main St, Hillsboro
The Interfaith Movement for Immigrant Justice invites us all to join them as our faith, immigrant and legal communities gather to demand state officials follow the Oregon Sanctuary Law and rule that ICE does not belong in and around state courthouses.

Let us widen the circle of protection until it encompasses us all, regardless of race, creed, class, immigration status, or nationality.
