

REFORMATION SUNDAY

October 25, 2020

Welcome to Bethel Lutheran Church

We are glad you are here with us via Zoom and we pray God will be real to you as you worship. Bethel is a Reconciling in Christ congregation. Knowing God loves all creation and holds us all, we welcome you. We welcome everyone and honor the rich diversity and giftedness that age, sexual orientation, race, belief, emotional and physical health, gender identity, marital status and station in life bring to the Bethel family and our relationships.

Communion

We will celebrate Holy Communion together via zoom -- a temporary practice during this time of forced social distancing. Please have bread/cracker(s) and a cup of wine/grape juice ready, if you and those with you would like to participate. If you do not have access to wine/grape juice, you may receive Communion without the cup – Christ is present in the bread, as Jesus said, “I am the bread of Life.

GATHERING

Reformation Call to Worship

Today we remember the sacrifices made and the risks taken by Martin Luther and the Reformers in the 16th century.

We celebrate the church that was, the church that is, and the church that will be . . . always reforming!

We give thanks for the gift of God's grace that saves and salves us, the grace that is amazing, abounding and all-inclusive.

We celebrate grace upon grace, overflowing, freely given, radical and reckless . . . grace alone!

We celebrate the gift of faith that moves mountains and sees beyond the storms.

We celebrate letting go and trusting God, God's steadfastness and strength, who will never leave us or forsake us when we are called to make sacrifices and take risks . . . faith alone!

We celebrate the Word of God, speaking everything into being, made flesh to speak good news in Jesus Christ, and speaking still through Prophets and Reformers, protesters and all kinds of people.

We celebrate your Word that goes forth to accomplish the things for which you send it, written on stone tablets, written on pages of paper we call the Bible, and written on our hearts . . . Word alone!

The Lord of Hosts, The Living Word, is with us!

The God of Abraham and Sarah, the God of Martin and Katie, is our refuge, a very present help in trouble!

WORD

Prayer of the Day

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray together:

Gracious God, we thank you that your Holy Spirit renews your church in every age. Pour out your Holy Spirit on us and on your people everywhere. Keep us steadfast in your Word. Where we are corrupt, purify us; where we are in error, direct us; where anything is amiss, reform us again; where we are right, strengthen us in all humility and purpose; where we are in need, provide for us; and where we are divided, reunite us; for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lover of our Souls.

Amen.

Reading

Romans 3:19-28

Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. For "no human being will be justified in his sight" by deeds prescribed by the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.

But now, apart from law, the righteousness of God has been disclosed, and is attested by the law and the prophets, the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction, since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God; they are now justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood, effective through faith. He did this to show his righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over the sins previously committed; it was to prove at the present time that he himself is righteous and that he justifies the one who has faith in Jesus.

Then what becomes of boasting? It is excluded. By what law? By that of works? No, but by the law of faith. For we hold that a person is justified by faith apart from works prescribed by the law.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel according to John

Glory to you, O Lord!

John 8:31-36

Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." They answered him, "We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, 'You will be made free'?"

Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever. So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed."

The Gospel of our Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ!

The response to each prayer will be: Hear us, O Lord.

Your mercy is great!

Sharing the Peace

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy and peace. The peace of the Lord be with you always

And also with you.

Offering and Affirmation of Giving (based on Matthew 13:22 and 1 Timothy 6:7-9, 18-19)

Jesus said that the cares of the world and the lure of money and material things can choke the Word in us, so that it yields nothing.

We bring nothing into this world, and we take nothing out of it.

We who call Jesus Lord devote ourselves to resisting greed, which plunges the human heart into ruin, and pierces it with many griefs.

We are determined to practice generosity with free hearts, fixing our hope on God and not the uncertainty of wealth.

We desire to be rich in good deeds and willing to share all that we have, laying up for ourselves treasure that will not decay but will shine in the age to come.

COMMUNION

Eucharistic Prayer

The pastor will guide you when to take the bread & cup and eat & drink

Holy God, Mighty Wind, Gentle Presence:

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us, and on these gifts of bread and fruit of the vine.

Bless this meal and breathe new life into us.

Come, Holy Spirit.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to disciples, saying, Take and eat; this is my body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, and gave thanks; and gave it for all to drink, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood, poured out for you and for all people, that sins may be forgiven. Do this for the remembrance of me.

The Lord's Prayer,

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.
